

Jones: I have loved you, how very much I have tried my best to give you the good life. In spite of all that I've tried, a handful of our people, with their lies, have made our life impossible. I'm telling you just as plain as I know how to tell you, I've never lied to you. I never have lied to you. I know that's what's gonna happen

We've been so betrayed, we have been so terribly betrayed, but we've tried. For months I've tried to keep this thing from happening but I now see it's the will of its the will of Sovereign Being that this happened to us. That we lay down our lives in protest against what's been done. That we lay down our lives to protest in what's being done. The criminality of people, the cruelty of people.

I have never, never, never, never seen anything like this before in my life. I've never seen people take the law ... and do ... in their own hands, and provoke us and try to purposely agitate and murder of children. There's no use, it's just not worth living like this ... not worth living like this. I don't think it is what we want to do with our babies. I don't think that's what we had in mind to do with our babies. It was said by the greatest of prophets, from time immemorial, "No man takes my life from me, I lay my life down." There's, there's no point, there's no point to this. We are born before our time. They won't accept us. And I don't think we should sit here and take any more time for our children to be endangered, for if they come after our children and we give them our children, then our children will suffer forever. I don't know what else you say to these people. But to me death is not ... death is not a fearful thing, it's living that's treacherous... Don't be afraid to die ... if these people land out here, they'll torture some of our children here. They'll torture our people, they'll torture our seniors. We cannot have this.

... soon we'll have no choice. Now we have some choice. You think they're gonna send, allow this to be done and allow us to get by with this ... you must be insane ... But children, it's just something to put you to rest ...

Oh, God ... Be assured in that choice is not ours now. It's out of our hands. We had really had some value ... but now we don't have any value. And there's no way, no way we can survive They brought this upon us and they'll pay for that. they'll pay for it, they'll pay for it.

I tried to give it to you. I've laid down my life, practically, I've practically died every day to give you peace ... and you still not have any peace. You look better than I've seen you in a long while, but it's still not the kind of peace that I want to give you. The person's a fool who continues to say that you're a winner when you're a loser. Win one, lose two.... We win, we win when we go down.

Well, someday we're gonna die, someplace that hope runs out. 'cause everybody dies. I haven't seen anybody yet that didn't die. I'm tired of being tormented to hell, that's what I'm tired of. And I'd like to choose my own kind of death for a change. Tired of it.

Tired of people's lives in my hands and I certainly don't want your life in my hands and I'm going to tell you, without me, life has no meaning. ... I'm the best friend you'll ever have. I've always taken your troubles right on my shoulders and I'm not gonna change that now. It's too late. I've been running too long.

So my opinion is that we be kind to children and be kind to seniors and take the potion like they used to take in ancient Greece, and step over quietly because we are not committing suicide. It's a revolutionary act. We can't go back. They won't leave us alone.

All the Indians in the Amazon are doing it now. They refuse to bring any babies into the world. They kill every child that comes into the world, because they don't want to live in this kind of a world. So be patient, be patient ... death is ... I tell you I don't care how many screams you hear, I don't care how many anguished cries ... death is a million times preferable to ten more days of this life. If you knew what was ahead of you, if you knew what was ahead of you, you'd be glad to be stepping over tonight. Death, death, death is common to people ... and the Eskimos, they take death in their stride. Let's, let's be dignified. If you'll quit telling them they're dying, if you adults will stop some of this nonsense ... Adults, adults, adults, I call on you to stop this nonsense. I call on you to quit exciting your children when all they're doing is going to a quiet rest. I call on you to stop this now. If you have any respect at all... Are we black, proud and Socialist, or what are we? Now stop this nonsense, don't carry this on any more, you're exciting your children.

Please ... for God's sake, let's get on with that we've lived ... we've lived as no other people have lived and loved.

We've had as much of this world that you're gonna get. Let's just be done with it. Let's be done with the agony of it ... (clapping and shouting in the background). It's far, far harder to have to watch you every day die slowly and from the time you were a child to the time you get gray you're dying. ... Hard. It's hard, it's hard... only first, only at first is it hard.

It's hard only at first. Living, you, you're looking at death. It only looks ... living is much, much more difficult. Raising up every morning, and not knowing what's going to be the night's bringing. It's much more difficult. It's much more difficult. Please, please. Can we hasten, can we hasten with that medication. You don't know what you've done ...

You've got to move. Are you gonna get that medication here? You've got to move ... Hurry, hurry my children, hurry.

All I say, let's not fall in the hands of the enemy. Hurry, my children. Hurry ... there are seniors out here that I'm concerned about. Hurry, I don't want to leave my seniors to this mess. Quickly, quickly, quickly, quickly, quickly ... sisters, good knowing you ... no more pain now ... no more pain I said please get us some medication. It's simple, it's simple, there's no convulsions with it, it's just simple, just please get it before it's too late.

All they're doing is taking a drink, that takes, to go to sleep ... That's what death is, sleep ... I know, but I'm tired of it all. ... please, keep your emotions down, keep your emotions down ... children, it will not hurt if you will be, if you'll be quiet, if you'll be quiet.

... We're trying. If everybody will relax. The best thing you do to relax and you will have no problems. You'll have no problems with this thing if you just relax. die with respect, die with a degree of dignity. Lay down your life with dignity. Don't lay down with tears and agony. It's nothing to death, just like Max said. It's just stepping over into another plane. Don't, don't be this way. Stop this hysterics... This is not the way for people who are socialistic Communists to die ... no way for us to die. We must die with some dignity ...

I know, but he's no different to me than any of these children here. He's just one of my children. I don't prefer one above another. No way I'm gonna do it. I can't do that. I can't separate myself from your actions or his actions. we tried to find a new beginning, but it's too late. You can't separate yourself from your brother and your sister.

This is a revolutionary suicide. This is not a self-destructive suicide. we had nothing we could do, we can't, we can't separate ourselves from our own people.

You can't separate yourself. We've walked too long together.
